55 GOLD STARS ON SERVICE HONOR ROLL

Fifty-five gold stars now are represented on the university service honor roll. Four more fatalities have been reported since the last issue of the ALUMNUS.

Second Lieutenant Gordon Ankeny, a night class student, was killed while serving in the North African theater May 25, 1944. He was killed in a plane crash while returning from his 25th mission over Italy. He entered the service in November 1941, and received his pilot's wings Oct. 1, 1943 at Altus Field, Okla. He went overseas February 29, 1944. He is survived by his mother of Dayton.

Lt. Edward Brennan, '37, was first reported missing over Italy July 12, 1944 and then given up for dead. After completing over 40 missions as a bombardier on a B-24 based in Italy his plane was forced down over the Gulf of Genoa after bombing Nimes, France. He entered the service in January 1941. He was graduated from bombardiers' training school and commissioned in August 1943. He left for overseas in March 1944 and served with the 15th Air Force. He is survived by his wife and infant daughter, his brother Lt. Comdr. John A. Brennan, ex '39, stationed at Great Lakes, and his mother of Cleveland.

Corp. James Bauman, ex '46, was killed while serving with the infantry in Germany Apr. 6. He was called to active duty May 12, 1943 and was stationed at Camp Wolters, Tex., and Camp Hood, Tex., before going overseas in October 1944. He is survived by his parents in Piqua, O., two sisters and two brothers.

The university also received word that Capt. Tom Hummert, ex '38, was killed in a plane crash off Cuba. No further details are available yet.

Reported missing in action were Lt. Harold Raybould, '43, and Pfc. Dominic Spinelli, ex '44. Raybould was a flight-engineer observer on a

COEDS FEATURED IN SPRING MUSICAL

DANCE SOLOISTS IN THE SPRING MUSICAL FESTIVAL AT U.D. May 20 were, l. to r., Fern Channell, senior arts coed, Joan Sides, and Lorraine Winckelman, junior arts students, all from Dayton. The music of the seasons was the theme of the program.

96TH COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES AT DAYTON ART INSTITUTE JUNE 3

Commencement exercises for the University of Dayton class of 1946 will be held Sunday, June 3, at 2:30 p. m. at the Dayton Art Institute. Fifty-three bachelor's and three master's degrees will be conferred with Father George J. Renneker, S.M., president, presiding.

EMERSON LANDIS

Principal speaker will be Dr. Emerson Landis, superintendent of Dayton public schools. He holds a bachelor's degree from the University of Pittsburgh, a masterate from Columbia, and was awarded the honorary degree of Doctor of Education by U.D. in 1941.

George J. Igel, jr., senior class president from Columbus, O., will deliver the valedictory address. Igel, Joan Dodsworth, and Betty Carlton will be graduated with honors and be awarded bachelor of science degrees.

The honorary degree, Doctor of Education, will be conferred on Dr. B. L. Stradley, vice-president of Ohio State University. He was formerly dean of the college of arts and sciences at O.S.U. and is a past president of the North Central association, accrediting organization. It was due to his suggestions, interest, and cooperation that U.D. became accredited by the North Central.

Among the candidates for degrees is the first U.D. student to complete the medical technology course offered as a result of the affiliation between the university and Miami Valley hospital. Miss Frances Thornton, Dayton, will be awarded a B.S. degree by the university and has also been accepted as a registered medical technologist.

Degrees will be awarded in arts, business administration, music, science, home economics, education, chemical, civil and mechanical engineering. Candidates will be presented by their respective deans.

FATHER J. P. KENNY

Baccalaureate services will be held in the university chapel at 9:30 a. m. Sunday. Father John P. Kenny, O.P., assistant professor of philosophy at the university, will deliver the sermon at the mass. Father Kenny has been a member of the U.D. faculty since 1940. He holds a bachelor's degree from Providence college and a master of arts from the Catholic University. He is also the author of a textbook on medical ethics.

The exercises June 3 mark the 96th Commencement of the university. This class is the class of 1946 which is graduating a full year ahead of the normal year because of the accelerated program. In September 1942 these graduates entered the university, and in just 33 months of actual school time they have completed the pre-war four-year course.

Summer Term Opens

The University of Dayton summer term will begin with registration June 15 and 16. Classes start June 18. Over 80 courses in 25 departments of the colleges of arts and sciences and engineering will be offered. Director of the summer term is Father Charles Collins, S.M., dean and registrar.

Give War Bonds to Field House Drive

Progress is steadily and surely being made in the campaign for funds for a new field house for U.D. To quote from a letter recently received from the father of Ens. Ralph Rohner of Akron, O., by Father Renneker: "The Field House news has attracted Ralph's attention, and he has written to me to take some money from his savings account and send it on to you so that he too would have a share in this undertaking. He also sends his best wishes to you."

The committee also reports that some alumni are donating war bonds to the drive. With the Seventh War Loan drive in progress alumni can help both their country and their alma mater by buying a bond and contributing it to the campaign for a more complete and useful University of Dayton.

396 LOYAL ALUMNI CONTRIBUTE DUES

Early in March dues statements were sent to all alumni. At present writing 396 have responded with dues and special contributions netting $1850.00 — a slightly better record than that reached at this time in 1944.

We are deeply grateful for this generous response. This active interest, this financial and moral support makes possible the continuation of the Association, the gradual development of its projects, the publication of THE ALUMNUS. We confidently hope that the list of 1945 contributors may serve as a reminder to those who have laid aside the first notice for future consideration to think of the "old school on the hill" and help make the year 1945, "the best ever" in the annals of the Alumni Association.

Letters from the Alumni

Weber As Guide

Dear Bro. Lackner:

Enclosed please find check for my 1945 membership in the Alumni association. I do look forward to receiving the ALUMNUS and keeping up to date on the latest happenings at U. D. and its alumni. Please continue to send the ALUMNUS to my home address.

I am still at Camp Ritchie, Md., although I just returned last week from my fourth trip in the past year, acting as interpreter and guide for army officers from Brazil visiting various camps and army installations here in the U. S. and attending some service schools as students. It is very interesting work and quite broadening in a military sense.

For the next two months I am scheduled to take a course here at Camp Ritchie. What comes after that no one knows. Give my best regards to all my friends at U. D.

Sincerely yours,

Lt. Richard Weber, '36
Camp Ritchie, Md.

U. D. Men In On Russian Juncture

Maj. Gen. Emil F. Reinhardt, commander of the 69th Infantry division of the American First Army, which made the historic juncture with the Russian troops April 26, was a former commandant of the University of Dayton ROTC unit. He was professor of military science and tactics at U.D. in the 1920's and is remembered as a man of high principle and strong determination.

With General Reinhardt's division were two former students, Lt. Bill Sauerman, '44, and Pfc. Robert Colby, ex '45.

Bro. Schleich Dies

Brother Michael Schleich, S.M., 82, Inspector General of schools of the Society of Mary and a member of the general administration since 1909, died in Madrid, Spain, April 25. A native of Pittsburgh, he was a member of the university faculty in the nineties and director of the Normal school of the university. He also held the position of Inspector of schools of the Cincinnati province of the society. Brother Bernard Schad, S.M., present Inspector of schools of the Cincinnati province, is the nephew of the late Brother Schleich.
